More things to note...

Women's History Month

Each week, we will learn about notable women in history. This week, we will read a book that mentions several important women to set the tone.

Class Dojo Points

Please see the handout about Class Dojo Points and let me know if you have questions. Week one= this group has had good, immediate responses to the points, but stickers seem more concrete. I do not like to use my phone beyond photos while I am in front of the children. I am also having difficulties consistently recording behavior, as can be a typical challenge with this system. Please celebrate the moments I do enter, which are usually whole-group, "everyone is showing me their best carpet behavior!" These are important moments to reinforce!

Mrs. Papczun out this week for 2 days

I will be out of town on Monday, March 5th and Tuesday, March 6th, for a trip I scheduled before I accepted this position. I have left everything the students need to maintain their normal routines and they will do great. Mrs. Burks is teaching for me and I am grateful.

Room 104 needs the following supplies.

Please donate as you can. Thank you! Mrs. Papczun

- Glue sticks (big boxes are cheap on Amazon, we use these so much and have used everything sent at the beginning of the year!)
- hand/baby wipes
- Band-aids
